

William L. Galvin, Committee of Marie Murphy, non compos mentis vs.

Viola Knill, The most Reverend Michael J. Curley, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore, and his successors, a corporation sole.

No. 13502 Equity
In the Circuit Court
For Frederick County
In Equity

TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The Answer of The Most Reverend Michael J. Curley, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore, a corporation sole, to the Bill of Complaint, respectfully says:

FIRST: That this respondent has no personal knowledge of the allegations contained in paragraph one and seven of the Bill of Complaint and can neither admit nor deny them.

SECOND: That this respondent is advised and therefore avers that the allegations referred to in paragraph two, three, four, five and six are substantially correct and he therefore admits them.

THIRD: That this respondent admits the allegations contained in paragraph eight of the Bill of Complaint.

FOURTH: That this respondent admits the allegations contained in paragraph nine of the Bill of Complaint and denies that Viola Knill has any interest in said property after the death of Marie Murphy.

FIFTH: That this respondent, further answering said Bill of Complaint, consents that the property referred to be sold under decree of this Court so that the proceeds thereof can be invested and divided among the parties entitled according to their respective interests.

AND as in duty bound, etc.

Galvin, W. L.
Solicitor for Respondent.
